DISCIPLESHIP

MATTHEW 28:18-20

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

An architectural rendering of an outdoor courtyard space. The scene is viewed from an elevated perspective. In the foreground, a woman in a purple outfit walks across a paved area. To her left, several bicycles are parked in a designated rack. A dark, slatted metal railing runs along the edge of the courtyard. In the middle ground, there is a seating area with several long, dark wooden benches. A person is sitting on one of the benches. To the right of the benches, there is a covered area with a white, flat roof supported by thin white columns. Several large, pinkish-red umbrellas are open in this area. In the background, there is a brick building with a large, colorful mural of a tiger's face. The mural is painted in shades of orange, red, and grey. There are also some trees and a small patch of grass in the background. The overall atmosphere is bright and sunny, with shadows cast on the ground.
