

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:2

Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Genesis 1:3-4

And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:3-4

And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5

God called the light “day,” and the darkness he called “night.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

Genesis 1:9

And God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear." And it was so

Genesis 1:13

And there was evening, and there was morning—the third day.

Genesis 1:27

So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:31

God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1

Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

Genesis 2:2

By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work.

Genesis 2:3

Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Galatians 3:5

So again I ask, does God give you his Spirit and work miracles among you by the works of the law, or by your believing what you heard?

Galatians 3:6

So also Abraham "believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."

Galatians 3:7

Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8

Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed through you."

Galatians 3:9

So those who rely on faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

Galatians 4:10-11

You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

Hebrews 4:8

For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day.

Hebrews 4:9

There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God;

Hebrews 4:10

for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from their works,

Hebrews 4:10

for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from their works, just as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11

Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will perish by following their example of disobedience.
