Luke 2:1

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.

Luke 2:2-3

(This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register.

Luke 2:4

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David.

Luke 2:5

He went there to register with Mary,
who was pledged to be married to him
and was expecting a child.

Luke 2:6

While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born,

Luke 2:7

and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

Isaiah 9:6

For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders;

Isaiah 9:6

And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father,
Prince of Peace

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David.

A wide-angle landscape photograph of the Sea of Galilee. The foreground is filled with the deep blue, rippling water of the lake. In the middle ground, a thin strip of land features a line of green trees and several small, light-colored buildings. The background is dominated by a large, rugged mountain with a prominent, flat-topped plateau. The sky is a clear, bright blue. An orange rounded rectangle is overlaid at the bottom of the image, containing the text 'Sea of Galilee' in white.

Mary Magdalene

Mary Magdalene

Luke 8:1

After this, Jesus traveled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out;

Luke 8:2

Luke 8:3

Joanna the wife of Chuza, the manager of Herod's household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

Wailing Wall

Matthew 27:32

As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene, named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.

Matthew 27:33

They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”).

Matthew 27:50

And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.

Matthew 27:59

Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

Matthew 27:60

Matthew 28:5-6

The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.
